

Wind of Fortune

YOUR DREAM VACATION AWAITS

A timeless beauty

Built in 1981 by CRN, Wind of Fortune has a rich history. Having originally been built for royalty, she later starred in the Jackie Chan movie Rush Hour 2. Fresh from a full rebuild in 2020, she is in absolutely immaculate condition and ready for her lucky charter guests to enjoy.

She is particularly suited to families and larger groups and is also ideal for hosting special events on board.

Wind of Fortune stands out thanks to her large volumes and impressive spaces across all decks. Her interior is classically styled, beautifully offset by a carefully curated art collection.

Living room

The main living room is an inviting space, with lounge seating and a modern entertainment system with an exhaustive movie collection. The large separate dining area has seats for all guests and is the focal point for special meals.

Master stateroom

Able to welcome up to 16 guests, the yacht has seven cabins ensuring plenty of accommodation flexibility.

She will tick all boxes for families, with many appealing features including a child-friendly crew and dedicated playroom for the youngest guests to enjoy.

All cabins are ensuite and include a large full beam master, a VIP suite and an additional five twin cabins.

Outdoor spaces

Outdoor spaces are vast, with numerous spaces across all decks. From al fresco dining spots to private seating areas, Wind of Fortune has it all. Favourite spots include the large sundeck, which features a Jacuzzi, bar and seating areas. For sun lovers, there are plenty of different areas with sun loungers and sun pads to luxuriate on while enjoying the Mediterranean weather and scenery.

A full gym, with all-modern equipment, is perfect for those seeking an on-water workout, while the huge beach club is a popular base for water activities.
